1. Nationalist resistance bands exist in Bosnia, Sandjak, and Montenegro. The leaders are Pasic, Gemes (sic), Kalabic and Ciuc (sic). Their activity is chiefly around the cities of Pec, Uzice, and Jajce.
2. These are small bands whose activity is usually directed to attacks against groups of soldiers on the march and attacks on cities, towns and villages, where they seize Communist Party members. During April, the bands of Gemes (or Gebes) and Kalabic, consisting of 30 to 40 men, entered Novi-Pazar and killed six of the leading members of the Communist Party. They clashed with an army force and killed eight soldiers and a captain who was the commander of OZNA in Novi-Pazar.
